For More Information: April E. Attebury, Judicial Administrator (530) 841-3143 Ext: 6505
Proposal Deadline: Responses will be accepted on a continual basis

The Karuk Tribe requests proposals for the following Scope of Work required for Tribal Judge Pro-Tem for the Karuk Tribal Court, specifically in the areas of evictions/unlawful detainers, mortgage and foreclosures, and on occasion family law, and child welfare.

The Judge Pro-Tem presides on motions and requests of the parties; schedules and presides over conferences, evidentiary hearings and bench trials; conducts necessary legal or factual research and renders legal opinions.

The majority of all work shall be performed, completed, and managed at the Karuk Tribal Offices. However, successful candidates will also be available in emergency situations for the issuance of warrants and emergency orders. It is preferred that individuals reside within close proximity to our Tribal service areas (Shasta, Trinity, Humboldt or Del Norte County).

Scope of Services:

1. Consistent with the Karuk Tribe's laws and policies, preside over and make rulings on assigned matters brought before the Karuk Judicial System, including motions and requests of the parties, conferences, evidentiary hearings and bench trials;
2. Conduct necessary legal or factual research and render legal opinions;
3. Render original interim and final decisions in the proper format for filing with the Court Clerk. Final decisions shall include a history of the proceeding, any procedural or substantive rulings, a summary of the testimony and other evidence, a summary of arguments contained in the briefs, citations to the record, and findings of fact and conclusion of law. Decisions shall be rendered within thirty days after the conclusion of the hearing or receipt of the last post-hearing brief;
4. Perform any other tasks required of a Judge Pro Tem on those specific projects and matters assigned to by the Presiding Judge/Administrator.

Successful applicants will meet the following Mini qualifications:

- a. Must be at least 30 years of age
- b. Have a minimum of 8 years' experience practicing law (which may include service on a tribal, federal or state court bench);

- c. Have a demonstrable knowledge of Indian, Federal and California law; and have demonstrable knowledge and experience with Tribal Courts, specifically in the areas of evictions/unlawful detainers, mortgage and foreclosures, family law, and child welfare.
- d. Be familiar with the Constitution and the laws of the Karuk Tribe;
- e. Not have been convicted by a federal, state or tribal court of an act involving moral turpitude, elder abuse or child abuse.
- f. Possess a valid drivers' license and be insurable by the Tribe;

Responses to this Request for Proposals should include the following:

- 1) A resume and statement of qualifications, including relevant project history.
- 2) Provide a detailed and precise discussion, including examples and/or documentation, of meeting each Minimum Requirement outlined in this RFP.
- 3) A lump sum price, with attached price page. Compensation to the contractor shall be based on:
 - a. Service Fees-Payment will be made by the Karuk Tribe for time spent by the Judge in performance of the Contract. This includes but is not limited to daily and hourly fees and/or rates for individuals as identified in the Contractor's proposal.
 - b. Direct Expenses-Payment will be made by the Karuk Tribe of direct expenses actually incurred by the Contractor in performance of the Contract. Direct expenses vary, depending on the nature of the proposed contract. Some typical examples of direct expenses are long distance telephone calls, faxes, postage, printing, reproduction and specific travel.

All responses must also include a list of at least three professional references that may be contacted by the Tribe. It is preferred that the references include clients for whom similar work has been done within the past two years. References shall include a complete address, contact name and telephone number.
