Vacancy Announcement

- Title: Wildland Fire Operations Specialist
- Reports To: Director of Natural Resources and Environmental Policy or designee
- Supervises: Field Crew Leadership as assigned
- Location: Department of Natural Resources, Orleans and/or Somes Bar, California
- Salary: $20.93 - $28.16, depending on education, experience, qualifications, time served in an equivalent capacity and funding availability.
- Classification: Nonexempt, Full-time, Regular

Summary: The incumbent serves in a key fire management position as a Wildland Fire Operations Specialist (WFOS) for the Karuk Integrated Wildland Fire Program. A WFOS will typically take on mid-level managerial roles such as Crew Supervisor or Crew Representative. The WFOS will assist with field supervision and crew training, organizing crew work schedules, maintaining supply and equipment inventories, implementing/monitoring project work, ensuring all paperwork is completed and turned in on time, making recommendations on personnel development needs, and assessing field level policy and personnel management efficiencies. These duties also include serving as Crew Supervisor or Crew Representative for the Karuk tribal personnel assigned to an incident (especially when traveling on assignment), forming strategies and tactics to manage a fire, assigning crew and other resource rotations, assessing the fire's threats to life and property, and organizing logistical support for the personnel assigned to fires, and/or fuels projects. This position serves as the primary communication and coordination link between program management and workforce capacities. This position may also be delegated to serve as primary contact for intergovernmental communications and coordination on a case by case basis.
