Request for Qualifications: GENERAL COUNSEL

For More Information: Sara Spence, (530) 493-1414, Extension 3117
Proposal Deadline: 5pm (PST), Friday, September 06, 2024

The Karuk Tribe Housing Authority (KTHA) requests Statement of Qualifications for Attorney services from October 1, 2024 through September 30, 2029. Attorney will act as General Counsel for KTHA and will assist KTHA in meeting compliance requirements including but not limited to policy, ordinance, and occupancy agreement development, staff and board training, development and review of contract and agreements and other services as deemed necessary as described in the following Scope of Work.

Questions relating directly to the RFP process are to be directed in writing by email to Sara Spence, Executive Director, at sspence@karuk.us

All email correspondence shall reference “RFQ General Counsel” in the subject line.

General Information about KTHA

The Karuk Tribe Housing Authority (KTHA) was established in 1984 and currently manages over 220 low income housing units in the communities of Yreka, Happy Camp, and Orleans located along the Klamath River in rural portions of Siskiyou and Humboldt Counties in California. As the Tribally Designated Housing Entity of the Karuk Tribe our mission is to acquire and maintain assets. KTHA will strive to alleviate the acute shortage of decent, safe and sanitary dwellings for Native American persons of low and moderate income. KTHA will promote and sustain the culture, education, language, health, welfare, self-sufficiency, and economic independence of its residents.

Affordable housing activities administered by KTHA include low income and elder rental units, lease purchase units, emergency housing units, first time homebuyer loans, down payment assistance, student rent vouchers, elder/disabled/temporary/emergency housing vouchers, home rehabilitation and weatherization grants and loans, home improvement loans, home replacement grants, women’s domestic violence transitional housing (operated by Tribe with DOJ/BIA funds), men’s transitional (sober living) housing (operated by Tribe with SAMHSA funds), wellness centers with full scale gymnasiums and fitness centers in both Yreka and Happy Camp, computer center in Yreka, in-house construction crew, in-house Security Officers patrolling all three communities. KTHA employs, on average, 40 employees.

KTHA’s primary funding source is the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Native American Housing and Self Determination Act (NAHASDA) Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG). In addition to this funding stream KTHA has successfully leveraged millions of dollars in federal, state, and county resources in order to diversify and maximize services to eligible low income Tribal families. Past and current grant sources include: Low Income Housing Tax Credits, New Markets Tax Credits, American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA), Tribal Homeland Security, Department of Homeland Security, FEMA, Cal-OES, USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service, USDA Rural Development Section 504 Grants and Loans, HUD Indian Community Development Block Grant, Bureau of Indian Affairs Housing Improvement Program, and Section 184 Home Loans.

Scope of Work:

Consultant shall provide services from October 1, 2024 through September 30, 2029 to KTHA as required by applicable Federal, State, and Tribal law as established by the applicable county (Humboldt or Siskiyou County Superior Courts) on an as needed basis.

Consultant shall provide estimated pricing for all services, as well as hourly fees, and any other associated costs for providing these services.

The work to be performed is on a project subject to section 7(b) of the Indian Self Determination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C. 45e(b)). Section 7(b) requires that to the greatest extent feasible, (1) preference and opportunities for training and employment shall be given to Indians, and (2) preferences in the award of contracts and subcontracts shall be given to Indian organizations and Indian-owned Economic Enterprises. All entities submitting proposals and claiming Indian Preference must include documentation satisfactory to show that they are Indian owned. All subcontracts executed between the proposer and its subcontractors, if any, also are subject to these provisions, and language requiring such compliance will be included in all subcontracts.

In addition to the 7(b) requirement, the successful proposer must comply and ensure that subcontractor compliance with the Copeland Act Requirements (29 CFR, Part 3); 24 CFR part 85 certifications including but not limited to the mandatory standards and policies relating to energy efficiency contained in the state energy conservation plan issued in compliance with the Energy Policy and Conservation Act (Pub. L. 94-163) and HUD requirements related to reporting, patent rights, and/or copyrights and other rights to data; HUD procurement regulations, KTHA Procurement Policy; and all other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

The selection of the qualified attorney will be based on the following evaluation criteria with established point rating for each category:

1. 20 Points: Past successful performance and experience providing services to Indian Housing Authorities under the 37 Act and to TDHE's after the adoption of NAHASDA, and Low Income Housing Tax Credits in California.
2. 5 Points: Capacity and experience in providing policy and ordinance development.
3. 10 Points: Experience in providing staff and Board training on NAHASDA related issues.
4. 15 Points: Indian Preference. Points will be given for Indian ownership and participation, and/or evidence that a proposing firm is committed to the hiring of and does hire persons enrolled in federally recognized tribes, descendants of members of federally recognized tribes, or persons who are actively involved in the Indian Community.
5. 10 Points: Past performance in providing attorney services to Tribally Designated Housing Entities.
6. 15 Points: Experience and professional qualifications of key personnel including specialized skills, project coordination, management skills and experience in working together as a team.
7. 5 Points: Cost, based on hourly rates.
8. 10 Points: Specialized experience and technical competence (including fiscal capacity) for the firm. The firm should have had a minimum of ten (10) years' experience with projects of this type. Volume and nature of present workload and availability of additional personnel and consultants to accelerate services required if necessary.

9. 10 Points: Because of the fluctuating needs in Indian Housing, and demands for changes in NAHASDA, the firm must exhibit capacity to represent KTHA's interests in Washington DC.

Responsibility of Proposer:

KTHA will award contracts only to responsible prospective contractors who have the ability to perform successfully under the terms and conditions of the proposed contract. To be determined responsible a proposer must:

1. Have adequate financial resources to perform the contract;
2. Have adequate insurance to protect the KTHA in the event of an allegation of negligence by the proposer under the contract;
3. Have a satisfactory performance record;
4. Have a satisfactory record of integrity and business ethics;
5. Have a satisfactory record of compliance with public policy, (for example, Equal Employment Opportunity);
6. Be licensed in the discipline to be practiced under the contract and have never been sanctioned or disbarred in any jurisdiction, and have only employees or agents who are to perform services under the contract who are licensed in the discipline to be practiced and who have never been sanctioned or disbarred in any jurisdiction; and
7. Not have been suspended, debarred or otherwise determined to be ineligible for award of contracts by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development or any other agency of the US Government, and not have any employees or agents who are to perform services under the contract that have been suspended, debarred or otherwise determined to be ineligible.
8. The Consultant must not owe KTHA or the Karuk Tribe a delinquent debt.
9. The Consultant must certify that there are no conflicts of interest which would prevent it from representing the KTHA.

Before a proposal is considered for award, the proposer may be requested by the KTHA to submit a statement or other documentation or information regarding any of the items 1-9 above. Failure by the proposer to provide such additional information shall render the proposer nonresponsive and ineligible for an award.

Consultant proposal must be responsive. Responsive means one whose bid or proposal substantially complies with all the requirements of the RFQ.
